LIVE Arts: Métis Jigging Part 1

Krystle Pederson is a traditional jigger and Métis dance instructor. She will lead students through the Red River Jig and discuss the history of the Métis people. Krystle will engage students through a presentation, demonstrations, and student practice. Students will be introduced to both types of jigging (basic and double) and also how to express one’s self through fancy steps. Krystle will also demonstrate and share her belief in the importance of community and working together. Both boys and girls will be encouraged to personalize their movements. The main objective is to learn rhythm and timing and how to move to fiddle music.

Please see page 3 for Teacher Guided Post-Broadcast Activities. These activities will give students the opportunity to apply what they have learned during the broadcast.

About the Artist

KRYSTLE PEDERSON is a Cree/Métis singer, dancer and actor with a remarkable career. Born with the gift of music, she started performing at a young age. Krystle’s lists of credits include winning awards in music festivals and competitions, receiving SaskTel’s Aboriginal Youth Award, co-hosting the National Aboriginal Career Symposium in Ottawa, performing at the 2010 Olympic Torch Relay in Saskatoon, and performing at the National Aboriginal Achievement Awards in Edmonton. She has also performed in Canada and Mexico with her new group “Iskwew Singers” from Vancouver. Krystle also adds film and acting to her long list of credits, receiving a supporting role in a Saskatchewan film called “Run, Broken yet Brave.” Krystle is an educator, teaching Métis culture through jigging and sash teachings to students around Saskatchewan. She is a passionate and well-respected Métis leader within her community.

Curriculum Aims & Goals

Creative/Productive: Students will learn several Red River Jig steps and how to dance in time to the music.

Critical/Responsive: Students will be asked to identify several kinds of Métis Dance.

Cultural/Historical: Krystle will give an overview of Métis culture by discussing traditional Métis clothing and dance. She will describe how the Métis drew from both Settler and First Nations traditions to create their own unique artistic culture.

Questions/ Wrap Up

Teacher Guided Post-Broadcast Activities

As a follow up to the broadcast, select one or more of the following activities to continue your students’ learning.

Activity 1: Invent Fancy Steps (45-60 minutes)

Play music while students practice!
Krystle recommends any songs from John Arcand’s album “Traditionally Yours” available on Itunes.

Activity

1. Review steps learned during broadcast.
   - Basic Step
   - Fancy Steps: Skipping, Cross Skipping, Bunny, Scissors
   - Double Step
   Practice putting steps together.
   Ask students to describe/ share tips on putting steps together and keeping time to the music.

Materials and resources for broadcast:
Students will need enough space to practice a few dance steps. Ideally they should be able to raise their arms to the side and not touch their neighbour.

Materials/ Resources Activity 1

- Download “Red River Jig” by John Arcand on itunes ($0.99), or download the whole album for $9.99
- Computer or media player, speakers
- Students will need enough space to practice dance steps. Ideally they should be able to raise their arms to the side and not touch their neighbour.
2. Invent Fancy Steps
Much like the Métis drew inspiration from various settler and First Nations cultures to create the Red River Jig, students can use their own knowledge and experiences to create new steps.

- Spend a few minutes brainstorming with the class. What could serve as inspiration for the creation of new steps? (Popular culture references, movement of plants and animals in nature, traditional dances from student’s own cultural backgrounds, etc)
- Play music and give students some time to develop their own fancy step.
- Ask students to share their steps with the class. Remember that jigging is a way to have fun and learn together!
- Pair students up and have them teach each other their new steps.
- Have a dance-off! Just as Krystle demonstrated during the broadcast, ask pairs of students to face each other and dance it out!

Activity 2: Métis Fiddle Music Listening Activity

Listen to audio excerpts and watch videos of fiddle music from different musicians. These videos are from Virtual Museum of Métis History and Culture: http://www.metismuseum.ca/browse/index.php?id=45

John Arcand

Students can respond to the music by following a process of critical thinking. (From “Responding to Arts Expressions" https://www.edonline.sk.ca/bbcswebdav/library/Curriculum%20Website/Arts%20Education/Resources/Core/arts_expressions.pdf)

Stage 1: First Impressions – Students describe their immediate reactions to the piece.

Stage 2: Description – Students list everything they see and hear.

Stage 3: Analysis – Students discuss the artist’s use of the elements, principles, materials, and concepts specific to the art form. Some questions that could be asked are:

- How is the musician using the elements or principles that we have been learning?
- What grabs your attention in the work?
- Do you see any connections between or among the things you listed during the description stage?
- What do you think the musician worked particularly hard at while he or she did this work?
- What “qualities” do you hear or see in this work (e.g., strong repeated rhythm, rapid pace, etc.)
Stage 4: Interpretation – Students share their own perspectives, associations and experiences.
Some questions that could be asked are:
- What do you think is the theme or subject of the work (if there is one)? How does the title of the song connect to the music?
- Why do you think the composer created this work?
- What does the work mean?
- In your opinion, what is the musician’s view of the world?

Stage 5: Background Information – Students find out as much about the musician and music style as they can. Students may choose to research these musicians or other musicians in more detail.

Stage 6: Informed Judgment - Students use the information they have learned about the music and reflect on how their thoughts and feelings about the musical pieces have changed throughout the process. They may want to select one of the pieces and explain why this piece stands out for them and what they have learned about it.

Métis Dances Kit: Kindergarten to Grade Nine. 2nd ed.
Authors: Saskatchewan Education
* Available in school libraries or portions are available on-line
http://www.metismuseum.ca/browse/index.php/208

(SK, FNMI) In recognition of Métis contributions to the province, Saskatchewan Education, with the assistance of an Advisory Committee, produced the Métis Dances Kit. The kit contains two audiocassette tapes that provide music by Saskatchewan musicians, and a teacher handbook that has instructions and illustrations on Métis dances. The history of Métis dancing and the type of clothing worn are also included. Some of the dances are posted on the website of the Gabriel Dumont Institute of Native Studies and Applied Research at http://www.metismuseum.ca/browse/index.php/208. Either QuickTime or Windows Media Player is required to view the videos. One copy was sent to each Elementary and Middle Level Saskatchewan school in 1990.

Note: This resource supports the Grade 4 focus “Saskatchewan Voices” and has also been recommended to support the renewed physical education curriculum at the Kindergarten to Grade 9 levels.
Other resources for classroom use

Note: While several of the following resources have been evaluated by teachers and recommended for use in schools, some have not been formally evaluated. Teachers are advised to preview all videos, music lyrics and other resources listed below before using with students.

Dance

Steps in Time: Métis Dances
(CORE, SK, FNMI) The video Steps in Time: Métis Dances teaches three Métis dances: Duck Dance, Fancy Jig, and Rabbit Dance.

Music

Drops of Brandy and Other Traditional Métis Tunes: Volume Two
The accompanying book Drops of Brandy: An Anthology of Métis Music contains biographies, archival and contemporary photographs, sheet music, stories about the fiddle, and a history of each fiddle tune featured in the collection.
A companion book of music to support the compact disc is available.

Métis Culture and Traditions

Turtle Island Voices (Grades 1-8)
Turtle Island Voices is a series of books that honour the histories, cultures and worldviews of Canada’s Aboriginal communities. There are a number of books in the series that can be used to support teaching about the Métis culture. These books are in both English and French and have a range from grade 1 to grade 8.
Primary: The Sash, Time to Celebrate,
Intermediate: The Gift of the Red River Jig, Making Music, Let’s Dance, Senior: In Tune, Our Voices
http://canada.turtleislandvoices.com/
Expressing Our Heritage: Métis Artistic Designs
Authors: Troupe, Cheryl

(CORE, SK, FNMI) Touted as the first synthesis of traditional Métis clothing to date, this kit offers 50 high-quality colour study prints that portray the diversity of traditional Métis culture. On the back of each print is valuable information about that particular visual. These prints and the accompanying teacher’s resource provide support material for the instruction of Métis history and culture, as well as archival research materials for students. The teacher’s resource offers extensive background reading and units of study with themes and topics that could be adapted to support various curricula. Included are a table of contents, a glossary, Michif language translations, a section of attractive maps, and a bibliography. Note: This resource supports the Grade 4 focus “Saskatchewan Voices.”
