

The Gauntlet

Well this relationship is like a sinking ship and
I'm on the verge of a drinkin' slip
The winds picked up and the sails shift
Man overboard I'm sick of this
It's just another battle and I'm building up resistance
I've run it before but this time I'll go the distance
Over and over repeated like choruses
This love is a gauntlet gotta survive the dark forces
Before it was strong now it just feels wrong
Don't cry for me, I'm already gone
Lost at sea it's soon to be
Another challenge comin down on me ohhhh

I've been through this gauntlet
So many time before
And I tell you if I had to
I'd run it a million more
I've been runnin' through this gauntlet
So many times before
And I tell you if I had to
I'd run it a million more
